COURTNEY'S FRIENDS ANGRY.

They Say the Engineer's Death Was Due to Carelessness.

The friends of Engineer Charles W. Court. so frightfully scalded at a belier inspection in i Thomas H. Hall's eigarette factory last Monday that he died of his injuries, are highly indignant at what they call the rank carelessness of the new Beard of Boller Juspec-

Washington Muilin, or the Board, said this morning : " I do not see how the Board can be blamed in this matter. When Inspector Warren Harrington called at Hall's factory in East Thirty-seventh street on Monday he found the fires burning freely and steam up.
